

Big Brighton Quest

Solutions

All Photographs are numbered and their location can be found marked in PINK on the map below.

All care is taken to keep all our quests correct and up to date.

However, the world is constantly changing so, if on your adventure you notice an error please email hello@questingforwhimsy.com with details of your discovery and be a part of the next version.

How To Score

Compare your answers for the Curiosity and Observation questions to the correct ones below

1 point per correct answer.

Look at the Spotto photos and see if everybody snapped the right shot.

1 point for each one

Check each person or teams Action photos and answers

1 point for each task completed

We don't usually allot points for the Sensory quests as they're all about personal experience.

But you could assign them if you wish or provide a bonus point for exceptional experiences.

Total points (without Sensory)
